ALABAMA AND NEVADA.

Alabama, was recently in New York City, where he was interviewed by of the bill, asserting the right and duty members of the press on the state of of national protection where life, lib-affairs in the South. Being asked if the Ku Klux did not interfere with the election in his State last Fall, he the friends of the Government, they should be protected, be the cry censaid it seemed very strange that a said it seemed very strange that a charge of this kind should be made trailism, or imperialism, or equal rights.

Thurman asked Summer if he intended to vote for the bill. sand larger for the Radiesl candidate than they gave Grant. The fact is, United States had only recently been said the Governor, the adventurers arraigned, and, in his judgment, justly who went there and obtained power arraigned, by the Senator from Massaand position through the instrumen-chusetts. and position through the instrumentality of the army have been thrown overboard by the people, and now return home discomfitted. They have wholly insensible when a bill was turn home discomfitted. They have the ear of the administration, and they return to Washington with false reports and statements. They know that their power in the South is gone forever, and they attempt to make martyrs of themselves in order to secure positions under the Federal Government. Willard Warner is one of this class, and yet Warner is one of Senator Stewart's model statesmen Nye presented a communication from Judge Logan of North Carolina, sayprobably because Stewart could use him. The Governor recited a case for fear of the Ku Klux, and asking in the city since yesterday morning, where a carpet bagger, run out of Georgia for committing an outrage charge of his official duties; also the Georgia for committing an outrage upon his own niece, took up his quarters among a number of negroes employed by an old gentleman in Elmore county, and, after living off of the the negroes for months, commenced trying to put mischief into their heads. The old gentleman waited upon the wretch at the negro quarters and ordered him to leave his premises, whereupon the assassin made at him with a knife, and in return received a severe caning from the vigorous old farmer. A great excitement was ereated by this alleged trightful outrage, and the matter was reported to Congress as a terrible case. Governor Lindsay sent his Private Secretary to investigate the matter thoroughly, and the foregoing is the substance of his report. The Governor further Says:

The old gentleman quietly gave himself up to the officers and gave ball to appear and answer to any charge that might be brought against him. A proposition was made to set-tle the matter by paying the costs, but this he refused to do, and leaves the Courts to decide. This is about the this he refused to do, and teaves the Courts to decide. This is about the amount of the Ku Klux outrage in Elmore county. As I said before, these reports are carried to Washington by men who have lost their power in the South, and make martyrs of themselves for the purpose of getting the Government. If themselves for the purpose of getting positions under the Government. If a criminal is mobbed in the South, it is blazoned as a terrible Ku Kux outrage, and the whole people of the State are belied and vitified. Such is the revenge of the men who have lost their power there. If a horse thief is caught and hung by disguised citizens or Vigilance Committee. elsewhere, we hear nothing of Ku-Klux in connection with it.

The Errect.—We never heard anything wrong of Will, Campbell until he flopped over to the Republicans to spite the Democrats for not giving him a nommation in Storey county. His egotism was his besetting sin prior to that time. But Radicalism affected Will as it does most of its devotees: He sought and obtained appointments, became defaulter, and was then nominated for Attorney General by the Republican party. On Monday last the Board of City Trustees of Hamilton

Board of City Trustees of Hamilton passed a resolution instructing the City Attorney to accept "the sum of $500 in full payment and discharge of the official bond of Will Campbell." The thing leaked out when Campbell was running for office, but he pleaded a broken leg and asked a suspension of public opinion. As the City Attorney of Hamilton is authorized to receipt for the $500 "in full release of the sureties," we suppose they have to settle the defalcation.

DISTRICT COURT.

A few shooters and other workers of iniquity still remain in our jails to be disposed of, when the cell doors of their hinges and our jailors will doubtless become Rip Van Winkles.

To-day the case of Edward Goyette the man who sometime since shot and seriously wounded Amible Bourdeau, in the Miners' Billiard Saloon in this city, is on trial in the District Court. For sometime there has been a good deal of curiosity among our people in regard to the last moments of Arthur Perkins Heffnan, particularly as to whether he made a confession before he was hung. BEN BUTLER.

This gentleman, who already fills a large place in the public eye, has won additional prominence by his performance in the Senate on Thursday of last week. I have heard nobody speak of it who did not regret that Senator bavis did not smite Butler full in his oblique optic. Yet this expression was in most cases qualified by the after thought that such a punishment, richly deserved though it might have been, would have been seized upon by unscrupulous manufacturers of public opinion as an ebuiltion of Southern hate and violence. If only some New England man had pitched into Ben, and given him a sound thrashing, say many commentators on the affair, it would have been a national blessing, I was talking about the case with a prominent merchant, the other day, Said he, "I think there is no man in the country who so fully realizes the common idea of the devil as Ben But-I objected that his saturic ma-Arch Masons, held in San Francisco jesty was generally credited with shrewd policy, and sometimes stole the livery of heaven to serve his own cers were elected; Grand High Priest, R.
